

Minimums and maximums, and maximum payouts are posted at the table. The Five Card Hand Bonus with the Nexus™ progressive system gives your favourite poker derivative games a whole new dimension. Players now have more ways to win the Progressive Jackpot along with exciting additional payouts.

Getting Started

The Five Card Hand Bonus is a wager added to regular poker games. The basics of the game do not change as the rules remain the same for the main game.

How to Play

In each of the mentioned poker derivative games, the Player's Five Card hand is created as follows:

Mississippi Stud:

The Player's five card hand consists of their two whole cards and the three community cards.

Caribbean Stud:

The players five card hand consists of their 5 cards dealt to them.

Let it Ride:

The players five card hand consists of their 3 cards and the two community cards dealt.

Four Card Poker:

The players five card hand consists of all 5 cards dealt to them.

Ultimate Texas Hold'em:

The players five card hand consists of the players first 2 cards and the first 3 community cards dealt.

Hold'em Bonus:

The players five card hand consists of the players first 2 cards and the first 3 community cards dealt.

*When Players forfeit/fold their hand for the regular game they are not eligible for progressive wager payouts.

Envy Bonus

An additional payout is available to patrons having wagered a progressive jackpot side wager. If another patron at the same table receives a straight flush or a royal flush, bonus payouts are applicable (see bonus payout schedule).

The following Bonus Payout Schedule applies to the Nexus progressive system:
